NOTICE OF OPTION TO EXCLUDE
PERSONAL INJURY PROTECTION LOSS OF INCOME BENEFITS

Effective September 1, 1994 an insured has the option to exclude loss of gross income and earning capacity benefits for the named insured and the named insured's spouse under Basic Personal Injury Protection and Additional Personal Injury Protection (if provided) if the insured states in writing that:

- within 31 days of applying for coverage, neither the named insured nor the named insured's spouse received any earned income from regular employment; and
- for at least 180 days from the date of the writing and during the period of insurance, neither the named insured nor the named insured's spouse will receive earned income from regular employment.

I have read and understand this notice and select to exclude Personal Injury Protection Loss Of Income Benefits.

I understand that if this form is not returned I will have full Personal Injury Protection. I understand that the offer to exclude Loss Of Income Benefits will not be made available to me upon subsequent renewals unless requested in writing.
